

Approaching Public History in a Globalized Toronto

Friday, September 30, 2016

12-5pm

Archives of Ontario, 134 Ian MacDonald Blvd.

York University Campus, 4700 Keele Street

Toronto, ON M3P 1J3

Map

- 12:00-1:00pm Lunch, sponsored by the Avie Bennett Chair in Canadian History, York University
- 1:00-2:45pm Session 1: Bringing the Great War Home
- Moderator: Jennifer Bonnell, Department of History, York University
- Film screening: Toronto's Great War Attic (60 mins)
- Speakers:
- Sandra Shaul, Project Coordinator, Toronto's Great War Attic
- Audrey Pyée, Department of History, Glendon College, York University
- Karen Black, Manager, Operational Support, City of Toronto Museums and Heritage Services
- Katharine Anderson, Department of Humanities, York University
- 2:45-3:00pm Refreshments
- 3:00-4:30pm Session 2: Engaging New Participants
- Moderator: Jay Young, Outreach Officer, Archives of Ontario
- Michael McLelland, Principal, ERA Architects Inc.
- Gracia Dyer Jalea, Founder, Toronto Ward Museum
- Maggie Hutcheson, Co-founder, Department of Public Memory
- Kaitlin Wainwright, Director of Programming, Heritage Toronto; and David Hains, Editor, Torontoist